

☐☐☐ CORFLU BADGER ☐☐☐

APRIL 25-27, 2003—MADISON, WISCONSIN—PROGRESS REPORT 2

COMING TO CORFLU?
CONSIDER MINICON!

Corflu 20 is fortuitously timed for the weekend following Minicon, one of the best big conventions around. Minicon 38, April 18-20 in Minneapolis, MN, will be a fabulous flurry of entertainment ten times the size of a Corflu, but it has many ties to fanzine fandom. Consider consuite head Geri Sullivan, for example. And may we point out their astute choice of Fan GoH, artist Sue Mason? (Congratulations, Sue!) For more information on Minicon, visit www.mnstf.org/minicon.

This is the last general mailing we'll be doing prior to Corflu 20; there will be a small email update a few weeks before the con, but it will only go to members, so be sure to get your registration in soon! For those who like to use fire in their recreation, please note that as of January 24, there are eight (that's 8) sleeping rooms left in which smoking is permitted. If you'd like one of those, don't wait any longer to make your reservation.

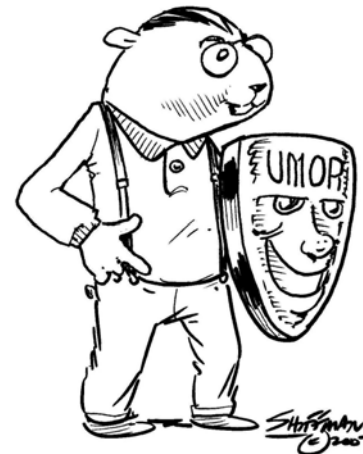

There are many reasons to make hotel reservations soon. For instance, the Crazylegs Run (a locally famous and popular charity 5k race) will be held the same weekend. This race brings a whole lot of runners to the Madison area; hotel rooms may get scarce. Also, the Alpaca Fancier's Collective will be in town that weekend, and you don't want to end up sharing a room with them, do you?

For your snoozing pleasure, the brunch is scheduled for Sunday at 11 AM. We have discussed the matter of late checkout with the hotel, and they're willing to consider requests on a case-by-case basis. We hope to convince them to give us a blanket late checkout for attendees, but for certainty's sake, we suggest you speak with the hotel staff directly.

We welcome all of you to Madison for the 20th Corflu. Don't forget your softball gloves!

—Bill Bodden, Chair

IS THIS THING ON?

Thanks to the enormous response to my plea for help in PR1 (er, gracias, Damien) I have been able to move forward in my plans to fill room after room with fannish programming. To the program ideas listed in PR1, I can now add: gang fanzine publishing, fanthologies: threat or menace, truth in memoir writing, gardening for the revolutionary fan-ed, and fannish cults old and new.

If you are willing and able to speak on any of these topics, please send a note along with your registration, or send an email to: corflu20@tds.net. Possible additional entertainments are in the works.

—Spike Parsons

(Our thanks to artists Stu Shiffman and Georgie Schnobrich for their contributions to this PR!)
